Scripture:

God composed the body, having given greater honor to that part which lacks it,
²⁵ that there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.

²⁶ And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

Focus Scripture:

“And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

Joel 2:28 (NKJV)

DREAMS

- Dreams are God's Way of communicating His will, plans, and messages to His people.
- Dreams in the Bible often represent present or future events that the dreamer cannot control.
- Dreams in the Bible require careful testing and interpretation to prove they are from God and not from false prophets or human imagination.
- Dreams in the Bible can also show God's love and protection, or his reprimand or warning.

Dreams in Scripture:

The word "dream" is mentioned in 13 books and occurs 61 - 87 times in the Bible (KJV). It is discussed most often in the books of Genesis (23), Daniel (18) and Matthew (6).

The word "dreams" occurs the most times in the book of Genesis (33 total occurrences) followed by the book of Daniel (27 times) in the KJV. Both words occur only eight times in the entire New Testament.

A dream is a scripture, and many scriptures are nothing but dreams.

Specific Dreams in Scripture:

The dreams of several Old Testament people are recorded in Scripture. They include King Abimelech of Gerar (Genesis 20:3), Jacob (Genesis 28:12, 31:10), Laban (Jacob's employer - Genesis 31:24), Joseph (Genesis 37:5, 9) and an imprisoned butler and baker (Genesis 40).

Egypt's Pharaoh (Genesis 41), Midianites who will soon be conquered by Gideon (Judges 7), King Solomon (1Kings 3:5), King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon (Daniel 2:3, 4) and the prophet Daniel (Daniel 7).

The details of Joseph's 4 dreams are in the New Testament (Matthew 1:20 - 23, 2:13, 19 - 20); and where he is warned not to live in Judea, is also referenced (Matthew 2:22). The wise men who came to worship Jesus dreamt of being told not to visit Herod the Great on their way back home (Matthew 2:12) and Pilate's wife had a disturbing one about her husband's judgment of Christ (Matthew 27:19).

Our Presence Scripture:

“And it shall come to pass ... that
I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh;
your sons and your daughters
shall prophesy,
your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

Joel 2:28 (NKJV)

Unified Dreams and Expectancy:

¹² For as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ. ¹³ For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and have all been made to drink into one Spirit. ¹¹ For in fact the body is not one member but many.

1 Corinthians 12: 12 (NKJV)

Scripture:

God composed the body, having given greater honor to that part which lacks it,
²⁵ that there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.

²⁶ And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

1 Corinthians 12: 24 – 26 (NKJV)
