God's Action Plan ~
Learning to Be Still and Angry?

Practical Assessments

A gentle answer turns away wrath,
but a harsh word stirs up anger.

Proverbs 15:1

The Bible and Anger #200

Anger in and of itself is not sinful, but what we do with anger can lead to sin or righteousness.

The Bible distinguishes between righteous anger and sinful anger.

Anger may be cruel and foolish, and it is something to be avoided.

As Christians, we are slow to anger,
quick to forgive and aim to live at peace with everyone.

But what do we do when we encounter anger?

Anger - a strong feeling of annoyance, displeasure, or hostility.

Anger is a normal emotion, but it's important to choose healthy ways to express it.

Anger can be caused by either external or internal influences.

Expressing anger healthily is important for our Spiritual, Emotional and Mental health.

If you are (get) angry, do not sin.
