

When we intentionally increase and reflect God's character in our thoughts, desires, and actions. This growth is called sanctification.

So for us veteran Christians, we're not trying to earn what God has already given us. Even after all these years, we're still growing in holiness learning to let our lives reflect the One we belong to.

1 Peter 1:15–16

...but as he who called you is holy,
your dash is to be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, “Your dash shall be holy, for I am holy.”

Colossians 2:23

These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh.

Ephesians 5:1

Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children.
